

On the Road...

- Since our last newsletter, we have traveled to churches in North Carolina, South Carolina, Ontario and Quebec; from the balmy south to the frozen north!
- We were able to attend both the Ontario District Conference and the Quebec District Conference.
- We are now heading to Tennessee; to Florida in April; Alabama in May; and Missouri in June.

SCOTT & LIANE GRANT

Your Metro Missionaries to Montréal, Québec, Canada - the most unevangelized area in all of North America!

"Is it the end of the Christian legacy in Québec?" We say "NO"!

This is the newspaper headline from Le Journal de Montréal on March 17, 2008, citing the decline of church attendance in the province of Quebec. The statistics referred mostly to mainline denominations. "Everyone has faith in something, but there are so many choices today that it is hard to know what to believe in," says one of the young people interviewed.

We say "NO"; this is not the end of the Christian legacy in Québec! Not in Ville St. Laurent where over 40 nationalities worship together throughout the 6 services held in Pastor Paul Graham's church each weekend.

Not in Côte-des-Neiges where Pastor Fidel Valenciano and his congregation have recently dedicated a beautiful new building and are effectively reaching into their community. Not in LaSalle where Pastor Andrew Clarke has a growing home missions work. Not in West Island where Pastor Bill Price's congregation is needing more space.

A difficult drive.....

Some say that driving into Montréal in the winter is difficult...but for us, driving out was even more difficult—not knowing when we can return. We have raised half of our Metro Missions budget, and are believing for a miracle to be on site by summer. If each of our current Partners found one friend to make a monthly pledge, we could start packing for Montréal. Who could you call or email today to help us finish?

Not in Trois Rivières where Pastor Andre Vezina's congregation is steadily growing.

Not in Montréal's South Shore, where we will begin planting churches when we finish deputation.

Not in Québec City, a city of 700,000 currently without an apostolic church, but where Québec District Superintendent Bro. Carlton Coon at the recent Québec District Conference declared in faith that there would soon be a preacher.

The Christian legacy in Québec is not ending! Right now there is only one UPC church for every million people, but with the prayers and sacrifice of God's people, this is changing. Please pray for the harvest field of Québec.

Thank you so much for your financial support that is allowing us to go to Montréal as Metro Missionaries. You are a part of revival in Québec!
